California State Capitol Museum's 2002 Holiday Music Program

Through the month of December The California State Capitol Museum celebrates the 2002 holiday season with traditional festive music and decorations.

Vocal Groups and musicians from surrounding areas will perform in the Capitol Rotunda week days between 12:00 A.M. – 1:00 P.M. and weekends between 11:00 – 4:00 P.M. (weekend productions may vary, call our tour office 916.324.0333) Music schedules will be available in the Capitol Tour Office or the State Parks web site (www.parks.ca.gov) Events begin December 1st – admission is free.

Adding to the celebration, William Glen, known for their inspiring collection of Christmas items provides the Historic Governor's Office with Christmas tree and decorations that evoke the nostalgic holidays of the past. Enjoy the fragrant and beautifully recreated historic floral arrangements courtesy of the California State Capitol Volunteer Association. Glimpse into the past by visiting the historic rooms interpreted by volunteers in period costume.
